FWS FEDERAL FINANCIAL SYSTEM BULLETIN: 00-05

To: All FFS Manual Holders

From: Chief, Division of Finance

Subject: Budget Object Code Classification

Effective Date: Upon Receipt

Contact: Finance Center, Financial Operations Branch

Phone/FAX: 303-984-6821

Background: Correct Budget Object Code (BOC) classification is imperative in FFS. The BOC drives the general ledger posting of all transactions. The amounts in certain general ledger accounts must be verifiable to specific items purchased. For example, BOCs 311* post to the capitalized equipment account, and must be accounted for in the property system maintained by Contracting and General Services (CGS). BOCs 32 post to the buildings or other structures accounts and must be accounted for in the real property inventory maintained by the Division of Realty. The Department of the Interior (DOI) has recently revised the BOC's in accordance with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-11, Preparation and Submission of Budget Estimates. This appendix reflects those changes.

Instruction: When assigning a BOC to a transaction, please use the BOC from the attached list that best fits the transaction. BOC's are to be assigned to all transactions, including those associated with MasterCard and the remote data entry of obligations and payments. If you are unsure of the proper BOC to use, contact your Regional Budget and Finance Office for advice.

FEDERAL FINANCIAL SYSTEM MANUAL
APPENDIX E
LIST OF OBJECT CODES

25.1 Advisory and Assistance Services

Obligations for advisory and assistance services acquired by contract from non-governmental sources to support or improve organization policy development, decision-making, management, and administration; support program and/or project management and administration; provide management and support services for R&D activities; provide engineering and technical support services; or improve the effectiveness of management processes or procedures. Such services may take the form of information, advice, opinions, alternatives, analyses, evaluations, recommendations, training and technical support. Also includes interagency agreements for advisory and assistance services.

Excludes information technology consulting services, which have large scale systems acquisition and integration or large scale software development as their primary focus -- both of which are classified under object class 31.0. Also excludes personnel appointments and advisory committees, which are classified under object class 11.3. Also excludes obligations for contracts with the private sector for operation and maintenance of information technology and telecommunications services, which are classified under object class 25.7; architectural and engineering services as defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) 36.102 (40 U.S.C. 541); and research on theoretical mathematics and basic medical, biological, physical, social, psychological, or other phenomena. Other contractual services classified in object classes 25.2 through 25.8, and 26.0 are excluded.

This object class consists of the following three categories:

Management and professional support services - Obligations for contractual services that provide assistance, advice, or training for the efficient and effective management and operations or organizations, activities (including management and professional support services for information technology and R&D activities), or systems. These services are normally closely related to the basic responsibilities and mission of the agency contracting for the services. Includes efforts that support or contribute to improved organization of program management, logistics, management, project monitoring and reporting, data collection, budgeting, accounting, performance auditing, and administrative/technical support for conferences and training programs. Excludes auditing of financial statements, which is classified as other services in object class 25.2.

Studies, analyses, and evaluations - Obligations for contractual services that provide organized, analytic assessments/evaluations in support of policy development, decision-making, management, or administration. Includes studies in support of information technology and R&D activities. Also includes obligations for models, methodologies, and related software supporting studies, analyses, or evaluations.

Engineering and technical services (excluding routine engineering services and operation and maintenance of information technology and data communications services) - Obligations for contractual services used to support the program office during the acquisition cycle by providing such services as information technology architecture development, systems engineering, and technical direction (FAR 9.505-1(b)) to ensure the effective acquisition, operation, and maintenance of a major acquisition, weapon system or major system; or to provide direct support of a major acquisition or weapons system that is essential to planning, R&D, production, or maintenance of the acquisition or system. Includes information technology consulting services, such as information technology architecture design and capital programming, and investment control support services. Includes software services such as implementing a web-based, commercial off-the-shelf software product that is an integral part of a consulting services contract.

25.2 Other Services

Obligations for contractual services with the private sector that are not otherwise classified will be reported under this object class. Excludes obligations for advisory and assistance services contracts, which are classified under object class 25.1. Also excludes obligations classified under other object classes for contractual services and supplies (object class 21.0, 22.0, 23.1-23.3, 24.0, 25.1, 25.3-25.8, and 26.0). Obligations for services in connection with the initial installation of equipment, when performed by the vendor, which are classified under object class 31.0, are excluded. Also excludes expenditure transfers between Federal accounts, which are classified in object classes 25.3 and 92.0, as described below.

Excludes repair, maintenance, and storage of vehicles and storage of household goods, which are classified under object class 25.7. Also excludes repairs and alterations to buildings, which are classified in object classes 25.4 or 32.0, respectively, and subsistence and support of persons, which is classified as object class 25.8.

NOTE: Obligations for research and development are reported in object classes 25.1, 25.4, and 25.5, as appropriate.

Includes:

Auditing - Includes obligations for auditing of financial statements when done by contract with the private sector. Excludes performance auditing, which is classified in object class 25.1.

Typing and stenographic service contracts with the private sector.

Tuition - Includes obligations for the general education of employees (e.g., for courses for credit leading to college or post graduate degrees). Excludes tuition for training closely related to the basic responsibilities and mission of the agency, which are classified under object class 25.1.

32.0 Land and Structures

Obligations for purchase of land, buildings, and other structures, nonstructural improvements, fixed equipment when acquired under contract (whether an addition or a replacement).

Land - Obligations for the purchase of land and interest in lands, including easements and right of ways.

Buildings and other structures – Obligations, via contract, for acquiring/constructing buildings and structures. This includes additions and rehabilitation of existing facilities and principal payments under lease-purchase agreements. Alterations, modifications, and improvements of existing facilities which add value or extend the life of the building or structure and are acquired by contract, should also be included in this category. Routine maintenance and repair costs are excluded from this category and should be captured in object class 25.4 (“Operations and Maintenance of Facilities”). All items in this category should also be entered in the Real Property Inventory system. This means any obligations for FWS buildings or structures that will be entered and tracked in the Real Property Inventory system should be coded to 322B through 324J. For any non-FWS buildings or structures not entered and tracked in the Real Property Inventory system, they should be coded to 326B through 328J.

Nonstructural improvements - Obligations for improvements of land, such as landscaping, fences, sewers, wells, and reservoirs, when acquired under contract. Routine maintenance and repair are classified under object class 25.4.

Fixed equipment - Obligations for fixtures and equipment that become permanently attached to or a part of buildings or structures, such as elevators, plumbing, power-plant boilers, fire-alarm systems, lighting, or heating systems, air-conditioning or refrigerating systems (whether additions or replacements), when acquired under contract. Includes charges for service in connection with the initial installation of fixed equipment when performed under contract.

33.0 Investments and Loans

Obligations for the purchase of securities and expenditures in the nature of capital for other funds. In credit liquidating accounts, includes payments for defaulted loan guarantees in those cases where the default has not resulted in foreclosure, so that the Government acquires title to the note rather than title to physical assets.

Investments in securities - Obligations for the purchase of stocks, bonds, debentures, and other securities (except the par value of U.S. Government securities or securities of wholly-owned Government enterprises) in which money is invested either temporarily or permanently. Includes the amounts paid for interest accrued at the time of purchase and premiums paid on all investments, including payments over par value for the purchase of Government securities and discounts under par value on sales of Government securities.

43.0 Interest and Dividends

Payments to creditors for the use of money loaded, deposited, overpaid, or otherwise made available, and the distribution of earnings to owners of trust or other funds. Includes interest payments under lease-purchase contracts for construction of buildings. If payment of claims under a contract has been delayed by the Government, the interest will be recorded under the same object class used for the original contract and not in this object class.

Interest - Comprises compensation to creditors in the form of interest payments for the use of money (not for interest due under the Prompt Payment Act).

Dividends - Dividends payments are the distribution of earnings to owners of a trust or other fund.

431A INTEREST
432A DIVIDENDS

44.0 Refunds

Payments made from an appropriation or fund account to refund amounts previously received by the Government to correct errors in computations, erroneous billings and other factors. Also, includes amounts refunded to former employees or their beneficiaries for employee contributions to retirement and disability funds (e.g. payments made when employees die before retirement or before their annuities equal the amount withheld). In the account receiving the refund, previously recorded obligations will be reduced in the appropriate object class(es) by the amount of the refund, if the refund is received in the same year as the obligations are reported.

441A REFUNDS

OTHER

The following object classes will be used, as appropriate, when preparing agency budget submissions. They will also be used at other times when such information is requested.

91.0 Unvouchered
